

“On the Wild Side”

Along the Highways & Byways of Amherst, NH

Compiled By Mary Salmon

Achillea millefolium – Yarrow

Asclepias syriaca – Common Milkweed

Anaphalis margaritacea – Pearly Everlasting

Centaurea maculosa– Spotted Knapweed

Daucus carota – Queen Ann’s Lace or Wild Carrot

Erigeron annuus – Fleabane or Eastern Daisy

Eutrochium purpureum – Joe Pye Weed

Eurybia macrophylla – Big Leaf Wood Aster

Helianthus strumosus – Woodland Sunflower

Hypericum perforatum – St. John’s Wort

Impatiens capensis – Jewelweed

Lespedeza capitata - Round Headed Bush Clover

Lunaria vulgaris – Butter & Eggs or Toadflax

Lotus corniculatus – Birdsfoot Trefoil or Deer Vetch

Lythrum salicaria – Purple Loosestrife

Melilotus alba – White Honey Clover

Nattallanthus canadensis – Blue Toad Flax

Oenothera biennis – Common Evening Primrose

Polygonum persicaria – Knotweed or Smartweed

Potentilla simplex – Cinquefoil

Rudbeckia hirta – Black Eyed Susan

Rumex crispus – Curly Dock 2

Saponaria officinalis – Soapwort, Bouncing Bet or Wild Sweet William

Securigera varia – Crown Vetch

Silene vulgaris – Bladder Campion

Solidago canadensis – Goldenrod

Symphotrichum racemosum – Small White American-Aster

Tanacetum vulgare – Tansy

Teucrium canadense – Canada Germander or Woodsage

Trifolium aureum – Large Hop Clover or Golden Clover

Trifolium arvense – Rabbit Foot Clover

Trifolium pratense – Red Clover

Verbascum thapsus – Mullen

Vicia cracca – Purple Vetch or Cow Vetch